In Gettysburg we'll take a guided tour of the historic battlefield and enjoy free time explore the visitors center with its numerous exhibits including the recently restored Cyclorama. We will also view the film A New Birth of Freedom, narrated by Morgan Freeman.

In Washington, D.C. we will make the most of our time with a guided city tour, a White House visit (if available), the National Cathedral, Arlington National Cemetery, Anderson House, and a nighttime Monument tour. We will have time to explore the Smithsonian & Holocaust Museums.

Colonial Williamsburg, home to the largest collection of colonial buildings in America where history comes alive will be ours to explore and enjoy. Costumed interpreters will take you back in time with demonstrations of skills and trades. After lunch at a local tavern, you'll have free time to explore the town. Our last stop before heading home will be a visit to Thomas Jefferson's home of Monticello.

The tour also includes...

18 meals (8 breakfasts, 3 lunches, and 7 dinners)
Tour Colonial Williamsburg & the battlefields of Gettysburg
Washington D.C. Tour, with a nighttime monument tour!
Lunch cruise on the Potomac River
Dine in historic buildings such as the Michie Tavern
Visit Jefferson's home of Monticello

Departures from St. Louis, Sikeston and Cape Girardeau

If you will need wheelchair assistance on this trip, please notify your trip coordinator before booking for restrictions that may apply.

This is a 4  Tour!

We have walking tours of historic districts and buildings as well as Arlington Cemetery and the Washington D.C. Mall
